

Dive into Social Science: the California Social Coast Forum

March 10, 2022, 10am – 12:30pm PST

OBJECTIVES

- Explore examples of human-dimensions approaches in coastal management
- Connect with other professionals interested in the application of social science

INTRODUCTION

CALIFORNIA REGIONAL SESSION

Governance is Messy: Sea Level Rise Adaptation in San Francisco Bay

Mark Lubell (Univ. California, Davis)

Shining a Light on Collaborative Science: The BEACON Method

Marc Beyeler (BEACON)

Doug George (BEACON)

Communicating Managed Retreat in California

Amanda Stoltz (Univ. California, Santa Cruz)

BREAK

SOCIAL COAST LIGHTNING ROUND

Empowering Coastal Communities: A Path to More Equitable Adaptation Funding

Jackie Specht (The Nature Conservancy)

Before the Flood: Quantifying the Effectiveness of Resilience Planning for Affordable Housing

Andrea Galinski (Univ. Florida)

A Place-based Process for Engaging Community Members in Discussions around Sea-level Rise, Flood Hazards, and Resilience

Katy Hintzen (Univ. Hawai'i Sea Grant)

PANEL DISCUSSION / Q & A

WRAP UP AND ADJOURN